IS IT TOO COLD FOR PHISHING?

James Bailey, President & CEO, Armedia

Millicent Kesewaa, Sr Information Security, Privacy, & Risk Management Analyst, Armedia

Information Security Webinar

Northern Virginia has faced some cold weather along with a surge in COVID, but that's not the only thing. Phishing is on the rise and cyber criminals are getting better. The weather is not stopping them, so we have to be more diligent in recognizing the threat and taking the appropriate steps to reduce the risk. This includes records managers who are charged with safe-guarding key assets and knowledge.

- 11:30 AM – 12 Noon ET – Networking
- 12 – 12:45 PM ET - Webinar
- 12:45 – 1 PM ET – Q&A
